

HCL Receives Pegasystems Healthcare Partner Excellence Award

Recognized for its solution expertise to combat healthcare fraud, waste & abuse and drive up customer satisfaction, retention & profitability for the payer companies

Sunnyvale, CA and Noida, India – July 10th, 2013 – HCL Technologies Ltd. a leading global IT services company today announced that it has received the industry innovation and solution development partner excellence award from Pegasystems Inc., the leader in Business Process Management (BPM) and a leading provider of Customer Relationship Management (CRM) solutions. This year, HCL is the only company to receive the recognition from Pega in the healthcare innovation and solution development space.

The Partner Excellence Awards recognize partner organizations for how they have used Pega to help drive extraordinary customer success. Pegasystems' alliance partners combine their business expertise and industry insight together with Pega's key products and solutions to help deliver rapid returns on investment. HCL's fraud, waste and abuse (FWA) management and member experience management solutions (MEM), built on the Pega platform, are pioneering full service and customized solutions designed to meet each healthcare payer's business needs. HCL also leverages Pega technology for customer experience management, population health management, patient relationship management & claims transformation solutions for health plans.

"Pegasystems is committed to delivering strong customer results, and our alliance partners are a critical part of ensuring we achieve our goals," said John Barone, Vice President of Global Strategic Alliances at Pegasystems. "HCL, along with Pega, is offering transformational solutions and a differentiated experience to its customers, enabling them to grow and continue to strive to excellence in its business operations".

"Healthcare fraud is an issue that has overwhelmed healthcare organizations and law enforcement agencies alike due to the formidable challenge of sifting through the mountains of data for signs of suspicious behavior," said R Srikrishna, Corporate Vice President - Infrastructure & Healthcare, HCL Technologies. "At HCL we understand that it is imperative to introduce a paradigm change through innovative business solutions that includes both pro-active analyses for new claims as well as retrospective trending. This honor reaffirms that HCL's data-driven, analytical approach to the challenge is helping the industry take strides towards a better solution."

HCL's FWA Management solution framework provides improved claim payment accuracy and increased annual profitability and also supports the creation of a secure environment that discourages future abuse. HCL's integrated Member Experience Management solution for health plans delivers exceptional customer experience. It leverages an analytics engine & integrating multi-channel sales system to present the health plan's products, services and prices in a consistent manner across the channels. It also provides a holistic view of the customer's experience and satisfaction levels with the plan and offers analytical capability to measure the evolving marketplace to swiftly create new products which meets the market requirements.
