The objectives of this Policy are:

- To create a window for any person who observes or knows of any unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud, or violation of a law, the Company's Code of Conduct or ethics policy (hereinafter, collectively the "Unethical and Improper Practices"), either organizationally or individually to be able to raise it;
- To encourage timely, safe and open reporting of alleged wrong doings, potential illegal activity, or suspected impropriety;
- To ensure consistent and timely institutional response;
- To ensure appropriate reporting of whistleblower investigations;
- To encourage ethical and lawful conduct;
- To provide adequate safeguards against victimization or retaliation of persons.

Scope

This Policy defines and lays down the process for raising a Complaint, the safeguards in place for the person raising a Complaint, the roles and responsibilities of all stakeholders, and sets the timelines for processes to be followed. In all instances, the Company retains the prerogative to determine when circumstances warrant an investigation and the appropriate investigative process to be employed, in conformity with this Policy and applicable laws and regulations.

Failure to promptly raise a known or suspected violation is considered an unethical behavior. Please refer to the Company's Code of Conduct for the standards of ethical behavior and personal conduct.

Reporting a Complaint

Reports of allegations of suspected Unethical and Improper Practices are encouraged to be made in writing so as to assure a clear understanding of the issues. Such reports should be factual rather than speculative and must contain as much specific information as possible to allow for proper assessment of the nature, extent and urgency of preliminary investigative procedures. The Whistleblower need not prove the concern but must demonstrate sufficient grounds for raising the concern. The disclosure can also be made anonymously, but it will be the decision of the Whistleblower Committee to further act upon an anonymous Complaint or not, depending upon the disclosure so made.

Disqualification

In case the Whistleblower Committee reaches a conclusion that a Complaint has been made in bad faith and is a false accusation, or is an abuse of process, or the Complaints are repeatedly frivolous, then the Whistleblower Committee may recommend that appropriate action be taken against the person making the false Complaint(s), including reprimand. Having said that, the Company clearly understands that some Complaints may not result in any investigation or action at a later stage even though they are made in good faith. In such circumstances, no action would be initiated against the Whistleblower. It is also clarified that this process should not be used as a grievance redressal mechanism.
