SmartPaaS: an intelligent platform for seamless innovation

HCLTech's SmartPaaS is a comprehensive hybrid and multi-cloud transformation offering that helps to simplify and standardize PaaS adoption and consumption. It covers cloud native PaaS, middleware and data analytics platforms. SmartPaaS facilitates workload modernization across these platforms and empowers organizations to embrace the latest technologies to stay ahead of the curve.

One of its key differentiators is that the automation for platform life cycle management lies at its core, which is enabled by ePACE (Extensible Platform Automation and Configuration Engine) accelerator. The automation support in PaaS environment includes productivity improvements and delivery consistency.

The SmartPaaS offering includes:

Advisory services

Platform adoption, modernization strategy and roadmap consultation for:

- PaaS and CaaS
- Databases and data platforms
- Middleware platforms

Assessment services

- Platform maturity assessment
- Platform architecture assessment
- Middleware technology transformational audit and architecture review
- Enterprise readiness assessment for cloud native adoption
- PaaS readiness assessment of applications and database assessment

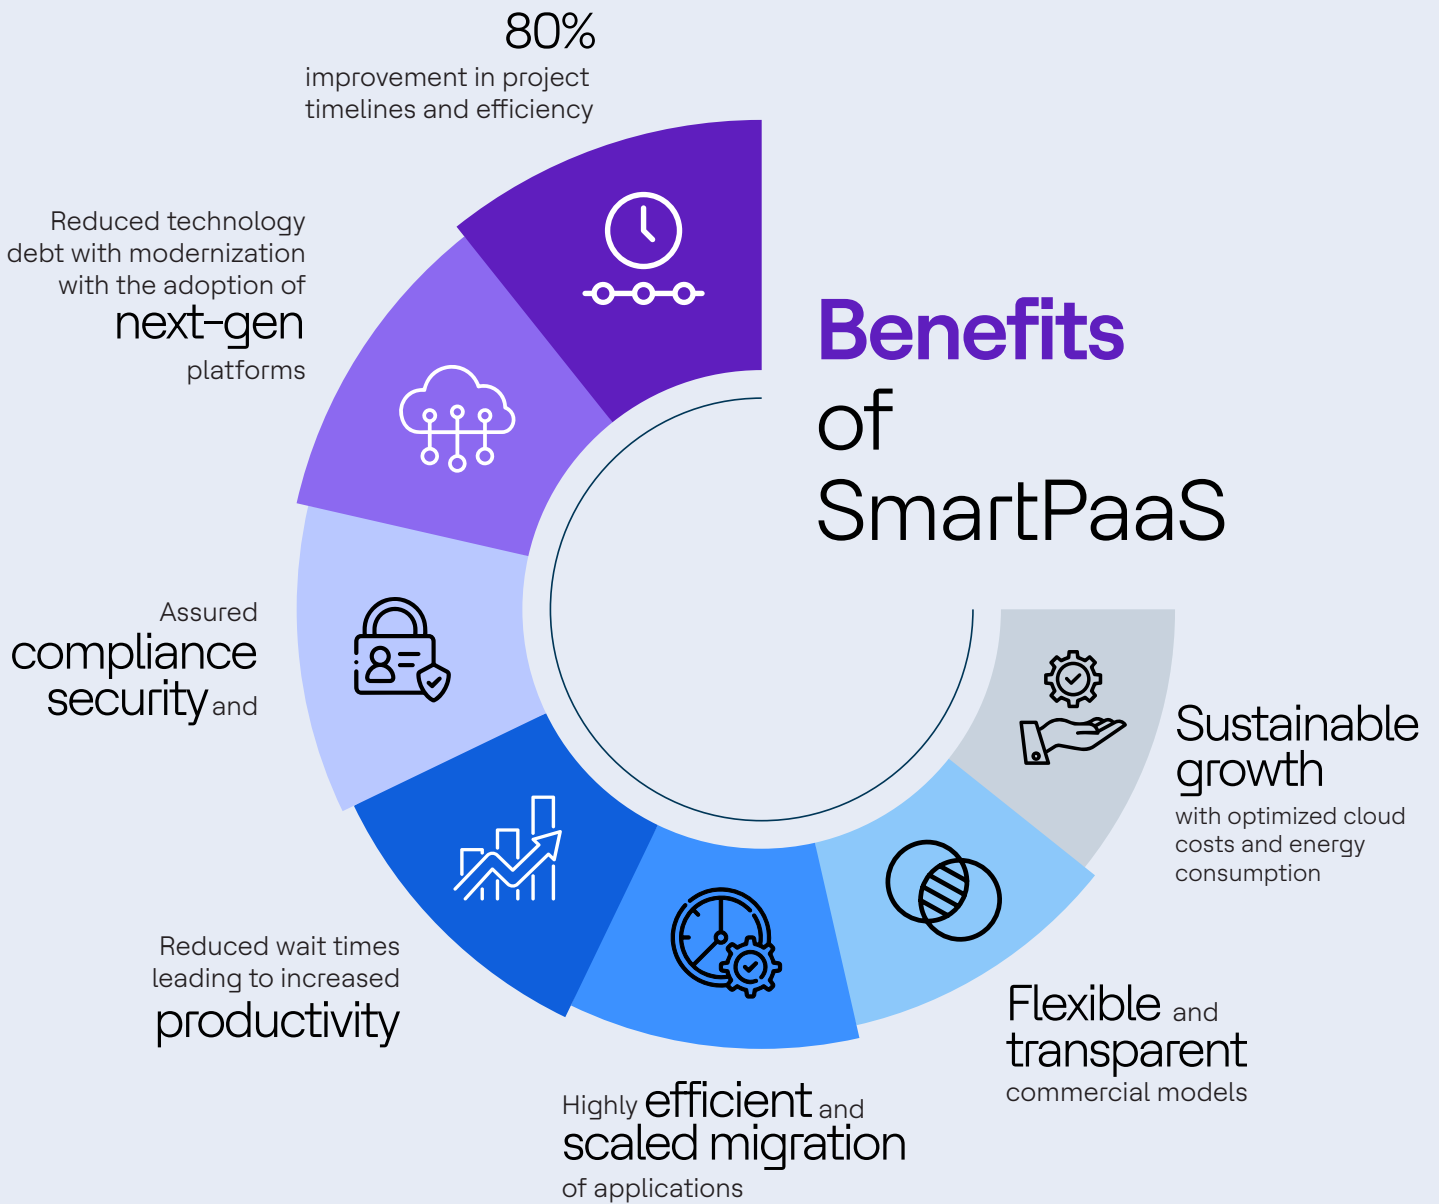

Design and build services

- PaaS/CaaS platforms
- Databases and data analytics platforms
- Middleware platforms

Migration and modernization services

- Application migration and containerization
