

PRESS RELEASE

HCL AXON To Partner with Hawaiian Electric on Customer Support Initiatives

SUNNYVALE, CA/Noida, November 15, 2010 – HCL AXON (HCL), a division of HCL Technologies and the world's largest services provider dedicated to SAP® solutions, today announced it has signed an implementation agreement with Hawaiian Electric Company.

HCL AXON will partner with Hawaiian Electric Company and its subsidiaries, Maui Electric Company and Hawaii Electric Light Company, to install and integrate a SAP Utilities Customer Information System (CIS), a software solution that will help the company more efficiently manage customer accounts; service, call-center and billing processes; and meters and energy data for its more than 400,000 customers on Oahu, Maui, Molokai, Lanai, and Hawaii Island.

“To meet our strategic clean energy and customer service goals, we must seamlessly install a CIS that exceeds the expectations of our customers and employee users, while providing flexibility for future enhancements,” said Dave Waller, Vice President Customer Operations, Hawaiian Electric Company. “With their proven track record of excellence in SAP implementation, we are confident that HCL AXON is the partner that will help us achieve success.”

HCL AXON remains committed to successfully delivering best practice customer services solutions to utility organizations globally, said Andrew Jornod, Vice President Utilities, HCL AXON. “High quality, real-time customer service is absolutely critical in the highly competitive utilities industry, and by implementing a best-in-class SAP customer information system, Hawaiian Electric Company will realize numerous business operations benefits, while positioning itself for future innovation.”
