

HCL Technologies recognized as the Most Innovative Services Provider in Nordic region

KPMGs Nordic Survey ranked HCL Number One in ten of eleven Satisfaction Indicators

Stockholm/Noida, July 1st, 2013 – HCL Technologies (HCL), a leading global IT services provider today announced that it has been named as a leader in innovation in the Nordic region. This accolade comes as part of a 2013 Nordic IT Outsourcing Service Provider Satisfaction and Performance Survey by KPMG, which studied the customer vendor satisfaction and performance of outsourcing service providers in the region. The study evaluated 19 services providers along with more than 330 unique outsourcing contracts and participation from CIOs & CXOs of top 200 IT spending organizations across the Nordic region.

Number one in ten of eleven satisfaction indicators

The study evaluated HCL as the services provider with most strategic importance to its customers. HCL recorded highest industry scores across all vendors on ten out of eleven satisfaction indicators, including Innovation, Price, Risk, Operational relationship, Strategic Relationship, Flexibility, Governance, Transition and IT Security. HCL's customers are the most likely to recommend their services provider to other customers, 91% versus industry average on 65%. HCL came out to be the only India originated services provider without any unsatisfied customers. Compared to previous year's surveys, HCL has shown progressive improvement in its performance on all comparable metrics.

Ashish Gupta, Senior Vice President and Head EMEA, HCL Technologies ISD said, "HCL has recorded strong growth in the Nordic region in the last years. This is the third consecutive year HCL comes out with the TOP SCORE ON INNOVATION in the KPMG survey, recognized by 76% score versus industry average of 55%. The achievement goes across our service lines and is only achievable due to HCL's passionate employees a great culture of working collaboratively with our customers and a mindset where each part of the HCL organization is driven on creating value through innovation in client engagements."

Reason for HCL innovation strength

The source of HCL innovation capability can be attributed to HCL's recognized leadership approach "Employees First, Customers Second" where all 90000 employees becomes empowered and engaged in proactive idea generation for HCL's customers, recognized as "Ideapreneurship". HCL has benefited through its definite strength in the domain of Engineering and R&D services as the service line is a constant source of innovative concepts and frameworks, which are also reused in deliveries of IT and Business Process Outsourcing Services. HCL's Product Engineering Services group has filed over 1250 Patents on behalf of HCL Customers. Five of 75 patents last year were filed for Nordic customers."

In order to be ranked in the report, service providers must have at least eight client evaluations with each a minimum annual contract value of €1 million. The data is collected via web-based survey and total confidentiality is assured for participants including CIOs, CFOs, CXOs or immediate direct reportees.
