HCL's Ariba Network launch package

Accelerate your RISE Ariba Network Adoption

The SAP Business Network Starter Pack within RISE allows for a pilot with key suppliers over the Ariba Network, with the ability to share 2000 purchase orders or invoices through standard integration with your ERP backend system.

To support the fast adoption of Ariba Business Network through the SAP Business Network Starter Pack, our offering includes the RISE deployment support and testing activities plus these additional tasks:

- Analyze and recommend the best pilot strategy and scope for your business (through category and vendor analysis)
- Identify and onboard the identified suppliers on your behalf
- Run show and tell sessions to demonstrate the value that can be achieved through other collaborations available in the Ariba Network.

Get up and running faster, with less effort

Our offering allows you to get started on the Ariba Business Network faster and with less effort. HCL experts will offer guidance and work on your behalf to identify and enable the right suppliers.

We'll also cover how to optimize your future use of the Network in interactive show and tell sessions. Our team will demonstrate the additional benefits you can achieve through deeper and broader collaborations with other direct procurement and supply chain collaboration scenarios. We will explain the benefits for greater Network adoption and provide customer takeaway content.

How to take the next step
