

Transforming the digital heart of your organization

Bring seamless employee experience with Workvivo

Unify your company communications and knowledge into one intelligent layer

Transform your intranet, communications and workflows with one AI native platform that turns insight into action, search into answers and your digital workplace into a daily destination.

In a global economy where disengaged employees cost an estimated $8.8 trillion annually, HCLTech and Workvivo come together to help organizations build a more connected, engaged, and productive workforce.

By combining our experience-led transformation approach with Workvivo's intuitive employee experience platform, we enable enterprises to evolve from fragmented communication and engagement tools to a unified, people-first digital experience hub.

Our partnership is built on the 3 Es of Unified Collaboration

Empowering every employee with a seamless, personalized experience

Engaging a diverse, distributed workforce

Extending collaboration across business applications and workflows

Bringing the experience to life

At the heart of this partnership is a shared vision: delivering a modern, people-first digital workplace. Where communication, culture and productivity come together seamlessly.

Powered by Workvivo and enhanced through HCLTech's design, integration, and adoption expertise, organizations can create a truly connected employee experience. One that simplifies how people interact, collaborate and stay informed across the enterprise.

From strategy to adoption: Delivered together

The HCL Tech - Workvivo partnership delivers a seamless, end-to-end employee experience journey:

reduction in turnover costs

The partnership advantage

Together, HCLTech and Workvivo deliver outcomes that go beyond standalone solutions:

Seamless experience

A unified experience built around employee needs

High engagement

Consumer-grade experience that drives participation and connection

Faster time-to-value

Accelerated deployment with a structured, proven approach

Scalable Impact

Designed to support global, dynamic workforces

Open and extensible

Built to integrate and evolve with your enterprise ecosystem

Your ecosystem, amplified

Once the vision is defined and the experience is in motion, the next step is ensuring it fits seamlessly into your existing digital landscape.

Workvivo is designed to complement and enhance your enterprise tools, including the Microsoft 365 suite, enabling a “better together” experience that meets employees where they already work—without disruption.

Seamless access

Friction-free login through Single Sign-On (SSO) and automated user provisioning, reducing IT overhead

Unified productivity

Bring together tools across platforms like Microsoft 365, CRM systems and business applications into a single, intuitive experience layer

Stronger communication

Enable high-impact, organization-wide communication with integrated collaboration tools such as Microsoft Teams and beyond

Flexible integrations

Connect with 300+ applications across CRM, HR, IT and productivity ecosystems, ensuring Workvivo becomes a central experience hub, not another silo

Intelligent workflows

Extend capabilities with automation and AI-driven integrations to simplify and accelerate everyday work

Let's build a more connected workplace

We are committed to helping organizations create employee experiences that truly connect, engage and inspire. Whether you're looking to modernize internal communication, strengthen culture, or unify your digital workplace, this partnership brings together platform flexibility and transformation expertise to make it happen.
