HCLTech named a Leader in ISG's AWS Ecosystem Partners Quadrant Report 2024 for the US and APAC regions

NEW YORK and NOIDA, India, May 23, 2025—HCLTech, a leading global technology company, has been recognized as a Leader in the 2024 ISG Provider Lens™ Quadrant Report for AWS Ecosystem Partners in both the US and APAC regions. The company earned this distinction across all four evaluated categories: AWS Professional Services, AWS Managed Services, AWS Data Analytics, AI and ML and AWS SAP Workloads.

As per the report,

- In Professional and Managed Services, HCLTech stands out for guiding clients through cloud migrations and operational excellence with a consultative model rooted in automation, compliance and continuous innovation.
- In Data Analytics, AI and ML, HCLTech has shown leadership in helping enterprises realize tangible value through tools and platforms like Amazon SageMaker and HCLTech AI Foundry.
- HCLTech has also successfully enabled enterprise clients to adopt serverless solutions such as AWS Glue, Amazon Kinesis, translating data into real-time insights and competitive advantage.
- HCLTech's leadership in SAP Workloads shines through its track record of executing smooth, scalable cloud migrations while advancing SAP modernization objectives through AWS-native capabilities.

"HCLTech's holistic approach to AWS engagements balances technical depth with business resilience, making it a dependable partner for enterprises navigating complex cloud environments," said Ashwin Gaidhani, Research Partner, ISG.

"By harnessing the AWS ecosystem and our advanced AI capabilities, we unlock efficiencies and innovation that empower clients to swiftly adapt to market changes, enhance decision-making and drive their business forward with resilience and confidence," said Prabhakar Appana, Senior Vice President of AWS Business Unit, HCLTech. "Our leadership across all key segments in ISG's AWS Ecosystem Partners Quadrant report reaffirms our unwavering commitment to shaping the future of cloud transformation."
