HCLTech recognized as a Leader in Everest Group's Application Management Services PEAK Matrix® Assessment 2025

NEW YORK and NOIDA, India, May 05, 2025—HCLTech, a leading global technology company, has been recognized as a Leader in Everest Group's Application Management Services (AMS) PEAK Matrix® Assessment 2025. This highlights HCLTech's expertise in handling complex application environments and ensuring smooth operations.

HCLTech is enhancing its AMS capabilities with its advanced GenAI-driven service transformation platform AI Force, which significantly enhances efficiencies, velocity and quality of AMS delivered.

Additionally, the company's alliances with solution leaders like ServiceNow and Workato and investments in tools and technologies like Site Reliability Engineering (SRE) demonstrate its commitment to offering high-quality application management solutions to its clients.

"HCLTech's leadership in this space is strengthened by its robust frameworks, such as ASM and FENIX, and its GenAI-driven service transformation platform, AI Force. Clients trust HCLTech for its high-quality resources and flexible project management, making it a reliable partner in their AMS journeys," says Ankit Gupta, Practice Director, Everest Group.

"At HCLTech, we adapt to the dynamic technology landscape and leverage GenAI to meet our clients' unique needs. Our approach encompasses customized operating models, DevSecOps, proactive monitoring and predictive analytics, all aimed at driving continuous improvement and delivering exceptional value," said Pawan Vadapalli, Corporate Vice President and Global Head of Digital Business Services, HCLTech.

The report notes that companies are investing more in AMS due to rising costs and the need for better technology-driven operations. GenAI is enabling them to improve productivity and reduce costs, it says. To read and download the complete report, visit HCLTech Named Leader in Everest AMS PEAK Matrix® 2025 | HCLTech
