HCLTech recognized as Leader in all three service areas in ISG Provider Lens™ 2024 – Advanced Analytics and AI Services reports for US and Europe

NEW YORK and NOIDA, India, April 07, 2025—HCLTech, a leading global technology company, has been recognized as a Leader in all three service areas in the ISG Provider Lens™ 2024 reports on Advanced Analytics and AI Services. The reports highlight HCLTech's leadership across Data Modernization Services, Data Science and AI Services, and Advanced BI and Reporting Modernization Services for the US and European markets.

HCLTech's achievement is underscored by its best-in-class customer experience (CX), as recognized by feedback from enterprise clients through the ISG Star of Excellence™ surveys.

Data Modernization Services: The reports recognize HCLTech's end-to-end capabilities in data estate modernization and its business-driven, outcome-first approach, ensuring enterprises have AI-ready platforms operating on actionable, real-time intelligence.

Data Science and AI Services: ISG also recognizes HCLTech's comprehensive capabilities to empower organizations to drive AI-led transformation through holistic AI lifecycle management while spotlighting HCLTech AI Foundry.

Advanced BI and Reporting Modernization Services: The reports highlight HCLTech's differentiated approach to transforming Analytics experiences, emphasizing its GenAI-infused, collaborative and conversational Business Intelligence (BI) solutions tailored to client needs for actionable insights and data-driven decision-making.

"HCLTech's transformational approach, which merges human insights with advanced technologies, positions the company as a trusted partner, enabling organizations to navigate the complexities of AI adoption while driving measurable business outcomes," said Gowtham Kumar Sampath, Assistant Director and Principal Analyst, ISG.

"HCLTech's strategic approach to data and AI transformation empowers enterprises to turn their proprietary data into a strategic differentiator. We enable responsible AI use and innovation by modernizing data estates, simplifying insights and scaling AI adoption. Our recognition as a Leader in Data Modernization Services, Data Science and AI Services, and Advanced BI and Reporting Modernization Services by ISG underscores our commitment to delivering business-driven solutions that drive measurable outcomes and foster data-driven decision-making," said Vijay Guntur, Chief Technology Officer and Head of Ecosystems at HCLTech.

HCLTech offers a comprehensive range of AI and Data services designed to help enterprises modernize data estates for AI-readiness, simplify insights for enhanced decision-making and scale AI adoption for business-aligned outcomes.
