1. Background

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (“SEBI”) formulated the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations 2015 on 15th January 2015 and these regulations came into force on the 120th day from the publication in the official gazette i.e. on May 15, 2015. As per these Regulations, a company listed on any Indian Stock Exchange shall initiate and implement a code of practices and procedures for fair disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information (“the Code”) for prevention of insider trading.

Further, owing to the amendments brought in by the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Amendment) Regulations, 2018, the Board of Directors has approved the revised code “Code of Practices and Procedures for fair disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information” which amends the earlier “Code of Practices and Procedures for fair disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”. The revised code hereinafter is referred as the “Fair Disclosure Code”.

3. Procedure for dissemination of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

- 3.1 All unpublished price sensitive information shall be handled on a need-to-know basis.
- 3.2 The Company will make prompt public disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information that would impact price discovery no sooner than credible and concrete information comes into being in order to make such information generally available.
- 3.3 The Company will make uniform and universal dissemination of unpublished price sensitive information to avoid selective disclosure. In order to ensure universal dissemination, all unpublished price sensitive information will first be communicated to the Stock Exchanges where the securities of the Company are listed before this information is released to the investors, research analysts, media or any section of the public.
- 3.4 The text of all communications covering unpublished price sensitive information to the Stock Exchanges shall be approved by the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer before release.

4 Sharing of UPSI for legitimate purpose

- 4.1 The UPSI can be shared only on a need-to-know basis and for legitimate purpose, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations which shall include the following:

- I. Sharing of UPSI in the ordinary course of business by any Insider, Designated Person, or by any Authorized person with existing or proposed partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants
- II. Sharing of UPSI for any other genuine or reasonable purpose as may be determined by the Company
- III. Sharing of UPSI for any other purpose as may be prescribed under the Securities Regulations or Company Law or any other law for the time being in force, in this behalf, as may be amended from time to time

Provided that such sharing should not be carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of SEBI Insider Trading Regulations.

5 ISSUE OF NOTICE TO THE RECIPIENT OF UPSI:

- 5.1 Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a “legitimate purpose” shall be considered as an “insider” and due notice shall be given to such person making him aware of the duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of such unpublished price sensitive information

6. Chief Investors Relation Officer (“CIO”) and other Spokespersons

- 6.1 The CIO will deal with the dissemination and disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. In addition to CIO, the following persons (“Authorised Spokespersons”) are also authorized to communicate with the Investors/media in co-ordination with the CIO:

- i) Chairman & Chief Strategy Officer
- ii) Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”)
- iii) Chief Financial Officer (“CFO”)
- iv) Head – External Communications

For any specific event or occasion one or more Company officials (including Vertical Heads, Delivery Heads and Business Heads) may be invited to interact with investors, research analysts and representatives of the media.

- 6.2 The Company Secretary in coordination with the CIO shall disseminate / disclose the information to the stock exchanges where the Securities of the Company are listed.

7. Guidelines while dealing with Analysts (financial as well as industry), Investors, Customers and Media

- 7.1 All Company spokespersons shall ensure that information shared with Analysts (financial as well as industry), Investors, Customers and Media is not unpublished price sensitive information. Only information in the public domain (i.e. information which is already provided by the Company through published financials statements, press releases or is available on the Company's web site) shall be provided. Discussion on any topic or issue or any data, which cannot be made public, shall be avoided.
- 7.2 Unanticipated questions raised by analysts, Investors and Media may be taken on record and a response given later. If the answer includes price sensitive information, a public announcement should be made before responding.
- 7.3 In case some unpublished price sensitive information gets disclosed selectively, inadvertently or otherwise, the same shall be brought to the notice of the CIO to enable him to make such information public at the earliest.
- 7.4 No Company Official will interact with analysts, financial market participants, Investors or any media representatives unless CIO (or his authorised representative) or any other Authorised Spokesperson of the Company is also present during such interaction.
- 7.5 Inquiries received from analysts, financial market participants, Investors or any media representatives in any department (other than the Investor Relations Department and the offices of any of the Authorized Spokespersons) must be forwarded to the CIO. Under no circumstances should any attempt be made to handle these inquiries without prior authorization from the CIO or an Authorized Spokesperson.

8. Silent Period

- 8.1 During the period when the Trading Window is closed before the announcement of quarterly or annual financial results, any officer of the Company shall not discuss or comment on any aspect of financial performance of the Company to any member of the media in order to avoid any inadvertent disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information on selective basis.

The Trading Window shall generally be closed from 25th of the last month of the quarter for which results are required to be announced by the Company and shall reopen 48 (Forty-Eight) hours after the announcement of financial results by the Company.

9. Procedure for Conference calls and analyst meets

- 9.1 Whenever, the company calls for a conference call, the CIO shall ensure adequate publicity of the event. A press release would be sent prior to the conference call to the stock exchanges and hosted on the Company's website covering the relevant details of the call (including Duration of the call, Number of ports, Access numbers, Reply number, Registration procedure, Contact person (for pass code), Web casting details).
- 9.2 Transcripts, Earnings presentation, Investors' presentation and the web cast with analysts and investors shall be made available on the Company's official website.

10. Responding to market rumours

- 10.1 The CEO and/or the CFO shall be responsible for deciding whether a public announcement is necessary for verifying or denying rumors and then making the disclosure. He shall give appropriate and fair response to the queries on news reports and requests for verification of market rumours by regulatory authorities.
- 10.2 As a policy, the company will consistently ignore speculative reports that appear in the press or in the electronic media. In order to protect the standing of the company, the response of the CIO, in each instance of a market rumour will be to neither affirm nor deny the rumour till such time an official position on the subject is developed in consultation with the CEO and / or the CFO. However, if a rumour or a press report is likely to impact the business of the Company in a significant manner a suitable communication responding to market rumours shall be finalised in consultation with the CEO and / or the CFO before dissemination to the Stock Exchanges and external agencies.

11. Miscellaneous

- 11.1 The Company reserves all right to modify and/or amend this Code at any time.
