Q. Who can Apply?

Women Professionals from IT background who would like to restart their career in upcoming programming languages.
Prerequisite: Past working experience in any Technology skill
(e.g Java/Spring/React/Redux etc)

Q. What is the Program Objective?

For IT women professionals, to train in upcoming development technology / tools along with core skills to restart their career.

Q. How will this training program help me?

The training program will refresh your existing skills and help you learn new technologies through training, mentorship with subject matter experts.

Q. Do I need to register for the Returnship program?

Yes. Your registration helps us keep track of your application and makes it easy to communicate with you.

Q. Why is there a selection process for the returnship program?

The selection process helps us in choosing the right candidates with the necessary qualifications and skill set required to participate in the program.