

Why is HITRUST important?

Healthcare faces a wide variety of data privacy and compliance issues leading to several security breaches every single day. HITRUST contains adequate Guidelines and Risk Assessments that are not covered under HIPAA.

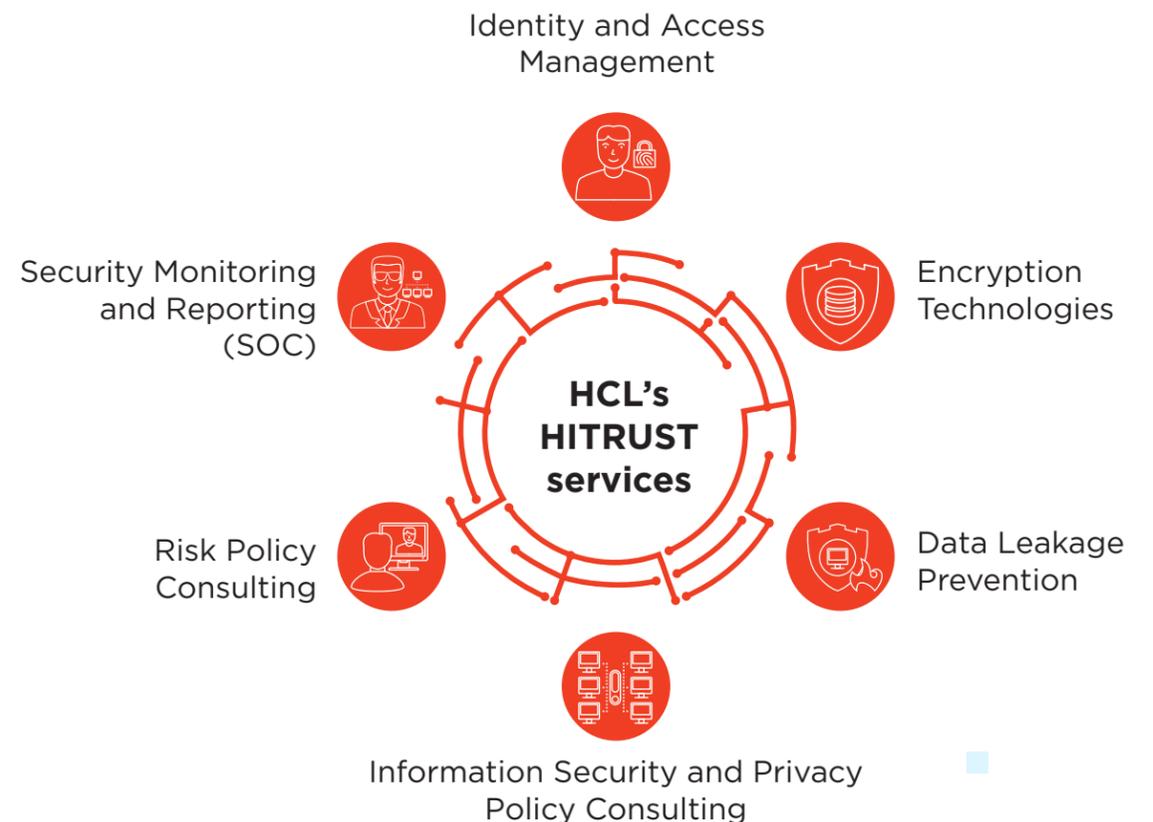

It covers a complete gamut of State, Federal, and Third Party regulations, compliance requirements, guidelines and encompasses controls of other security-related regulations.

It also contains implementation standards and controls of different security regulations leading to optimized cost and reliable outcomes.

How can HCL help with your HITRUST initiatives?

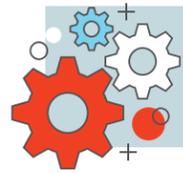

HCL's HITRUST services majorly focusses on enabling all organizations dealing with sensitive healthcare data to effectively complete their self-assessment and remediation activities.

HCL Healthcare Regulations, Compliance and Data Security Center of Excellence offers not only security services but also HITRUST services that provide technology solutions for remediation in areas such as:
